

CABINAIR
SERVICES VACANCY

Repair Technician

MAIN DUTIES

- Carry out repairs to aircraft component as directed by the Workshop supervisor as scheduled by Business operations supervisor.
- Carry out component Inspection, damage removal, repair, final finish and final assembly of aircraft components in line with the companies EASA 145 approved scope of work and capability list.
- Manufacture of moulds and repair doublers as may be required
- Ensuring that all relevant work cards and associated paperwork are correctly filled in maintaining progressive sign off.
- Ensure that all tasks are carried out to the latest Maintenance data.
- Ensure that all products are delivered to the highest possible standard and to the customer deadline.
- Ensure good housekeeping within the workshop environment paying particular attention to his/her designated work area.
- Assist in Loading and unloading of aircraft components where applicable.
- Ensuring all activities are carried out in accordance with relevant company and Health and Safety procedures.
- Represent the company off-site where applicable on behalf of customers to provide on wing support.
- So far as quality is concerned ensure you have been properly directed, have comprehensive work instructions, and have been adequately briefed on each activity and understand and work to the quality system as defined in the company MOE.
- Ensuring company vehicles, tooling and equipment are kept in good condition.
- Constantly seek improvement in all activities to maximise productivity and minimise cost.
- Any other duties as may be required by the Engineering Director.
- Any other duties that may from time to time be required by the Accountable Manager.

ADDITIONAL DUTIES

- To contribute to productivity and morale by communicating problems promptly to management and by assisting members of immediate, and wider teams, when required, to the best of job holder's abilities.
- To communicate effectively with management and other staff in order to improve morale and teamwork as well as better understanding of, and progress towards overall Company goals.
- Occasionally there will be a requirement to work extra hours to meet deadlines.